Exhibition Success

Yet another successful exhibition with 121 entries and 30 paintings sold. It was particularly satisfying to see our new members work.

A big thank you to all involved in making the 2017 show such a success. Particular thanks go to Sue and Gill who did a brilliant job as our new chairs making sure everything ran smoothly.

Mike Long did an excellent job of judging the show with 'Gap in the Hedge' by Sandra Burnham winning the cup and 'Bluebells, Oldbury Court' by Jean Davidge was runner up.

The competition 'Wild at Heart' was won by Sandra Burnham with runner up Colin Crossley.

Visitors vote

'Colour in the Garden' by Sandra Burnham won the 'Visitor's Best in Show' and 'The Old Rag and Bone Shop' by Sue Palmer and 'Grand Western Canal, Tiverton by Alan Weeks were joint runners up.

The raffle winner of the flower pastel artwork donated by Sue will be drawn on Thursday evening by Mike Long.
